IMPOUNDING STOCK.

Hon. W. H. Stark has introduced a bill in the Assembly, making it unlawful for horses, mules, cattle, sheep and swine to run at large on any street, highway, lane, alley or public ground in any city in this State. The bill provides that the owner shall forfeit the sum of one dollar for each horse, mule and cattle, and thirty cents for each head of sheep or swine, found running at large, and besides shall all costs attending impounding, selling or releasing such animals. Each city shall provide and maintain within its limits a suitable and safe place for the impounding of all animals above specified, found on any street, and soon, contrary to the provisions of the bill. It further provides that the Common Council of each city shall on the first Tuesday in May, in each year, appoint a pound master, who shall hold for one year. The duties of the pound-master are clearly and briefly set forth in the bill, and also his duties pertaining to the care of the stock placed in the pound. All animals impounded, unless claimed within six days, shall be sold at public vendue, after two days of public notice of such sale by advertisement. The proceeds of such sale shall be used in discharging all costs of the sale and the impounding, and the surplus, if any, shall be returned to the owner if he is known, and if no application for it shall be made within ten days, it shall be covered into the city treasury. The bill makes it lawful for any person finding any stock running at large contrary to the provisions therein contained, to capture and deliver the same to the pound keeper of the city. Any person who shall know ingly resist, interfere with, molest, hinder or in any manner delay any other person in the lawful execution of any provision of the act, shall for every such offense be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or by fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred. The bill makes provision that should any city neglect to provide a pound. or the Common Council to appoint a pound keeper, at the time specified, it shall be the duty of the police justice, on applica tion thereof, in writing, signed by three residents thereof, to designate some suitable place within such city for a ipound, and to appoint a pound keeper therefor. The bill was introduced on the 17th, and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary in whose hands it still remains. The general provisions of the bill are excellent, and well worth the careful consideration of the

WHAT CERTAIN OFFICIALS SHOULD NOT DO.

When the State hires a man to superintend a public institution, and pays him s good salary for his services, the State expects that he will be diligent in busi ness, fervent in spirit, serving the people and more especially the unfortunate ones placed under his care. Every man who contributes a dollar to the State treasury feels any concern about the successful and the economical management of the various institutions supported by the State, expects that the superintendents thereof will do their duty and that their time, attention, and professional ability, will be given to the State. They should not run about the country, talking on topics which do not concern their institutions, neither should they exert an influence in getting certain resolutions adopted by various bodies, favorable to the enlargement of public buildings, when such enlargements are not required. If they would serve the State as they would serve themselves if engaged in private business, their institutions would be more economically and satisfactorily conducted. And if some of the officials of lower standing than those we have referred to, would show a little more devotion for the good of the State, they would assist materially in reducing the large appropriations which are annually called for. These remarks do not, for the reason that they cannot, apply to any institution in the First Congressional District.

It has come to pass that the State is conscious of the fact that it has been paying too much for the reports of the Supreme Court. Callaghan & Co., of Chicage, have had the contract for several years and have charged $4.50 per volume for the reports. While this may not have been an exorbitant price considering the cost of other works of like size, workmanship and binding, it proves to be much higher than the State ought to pay. Banks Brothers, law book publishers, of New York, have offered to print the reports and furnish them to the State for $1.75 per volume-a reduction of much importance when it is considered that thousands of the Callaghan & Co. will do as well as Banks Brothers, the latter will become the publishers of the Supreme Court reports. In any event the State and the legal protession will no longer pay $4.50 per volume for the reports. This is one step toward

When Mr. Chase was Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States Senator Beck, Justice Harlan, and ex-Secretary of the Treasury Bristow, stood together to be sworn in as members of the Bar of that Court, Chase spoke of them as "three big Kentuckians," each weighing more than two hundred pounds. Then they were practicing lawyers, and none ever held any office of importance, and of course stood in the presence of the august Court with some degree of diffidence. In time they developed, and all of them in a few years rose to distinction. Beck went to the Senate, Harlan donned the robes of a Justice of the highest tribunal in this country, and Bristow, became Secretary of Senator Blaine has publicly said that he intended to introduce a bill for the remonetization of silver, as he thought it should be done. He said he had purposely left the number of grains in the dollar blank because he had not felt willing to vote for a dollar of 4121/2 grains. He would move to fill the blank at a future day. Meanwhile, by some blunder, he had been credited with the brilliant conception | The Blue Book and Railroad of leaving the number of grains in the dollar to be determined by the director of the mint and the Secretary of the Treasury. What he had left to those officers was the right and power to publicly fix the price of silver bullion, at the market rate, and this he conceived to be the best regulation on that subject.

There are some interesting speculations in Washington concerning the appointment of Rusk as Railway Commissioner. Some regard that it will defeat Howe for the Senate next year; that it will secure the election of Washburn; that he has half the State already; and that Rusk, as Railway Commissioner, can get the other half for him. How wise some politicians and profession with reports at one dollar are, and how useful they are in giving and seventy-five cents per volume. Yespeople an insight into the future. This virtually ends the Senatorial campaign for next winter, and will save us a good deal of trouble. No doubt Mr. Washburn likes the arrangement first rate. But if Jerre other was heard. Banks' agent renewed don't accept, and it is likely he will not, then the slate is smashed to pleces.

The State Journal published yesterday a statement regarding the condition of the banks of Wisconsin on Monday morning, January 7, 1878. There are twenty-seven banks reported -of course National banks not included-which show an aggregate capital of $1,438,731.33. The total amount of deposits aggregate $8,401,145.02. The report of the Merchants and Mechanics' Savings bank in this city shows $108,175 .-89 of loans and discounts, a total resource of $210,872.14, and due depositors $100,-

It is said of President Hayes that he devotes more hours to the work of the White House than any of his predecessors. He p ut in ten solid hours a day, keeps his tem per, rises early, eats plain food, carries about him a clean conscience, reads the newspapers which support his policy, sings hymns on Saturday evenings, goes to church once each Sunday, and is as affable as any man who ever sat in the Presidential chair.

According to the Boston Advertiser there is some hope that the Republican party will yet throw itself on the side of the President. It says: "The outlook as regards tho tendency of the party to range itself in support of the President, is plainly encouraging. And the gratifying feature of the situation is, that it has come about without yielding on his part. There is nowhere any indication that he mediates retreating from the positions taken in the letter of acceptance."

It is to be hoped that Mr. Pope's bill appropriating $1,500 for the erection of a monument to the lamented Governor Harvey, will pass, and that fitting honors will be paid the man whose memory is revered by every citizen of Wisconsin.

Matthews, silver resolution passed the Senate yesterday by a large vote, an analysis of which is elsewhere given in this issue. It will be seen that the Wisconsin Senators-Howe and Cameron-voted for

FROM MADISON.

Special dispatch to the Janesville Gazette. Madison, Wis., Jan. 26.-There is considerable feeling here with reference to the bill pending in the legislature proposing to cheapen the price of the Wisconsin Supreme Court reports. Hitherto the State and members of the legal profession have been compelled to pay Callaghanf& Co., of Chicago, that outrageous price of $4.50 per volume for these reports. Early in the session, Banks Bro.'s, of New York, submitted a proposition to furnish the State terday afternoon the Bar Association Committee held a meeting and heard propositions of both the above concerns. Each was excluded from the room while the the former proposition and further Mr. Callaghan supplementing the former offer by proposing to give the State the copy-right. Callaghan talks of doing as well, provided the State will pay the expense of the pressent Supreme Court reporter, whom he now pays. The prospect for cheaper books is promising.

Governor Smith has not yet signed the oint resolution providing for additional Blue Books, but it is believed no further agitation of the matter will be had, as the publishers talk of furnishing the book at wenty cents less per volume than the price fixed in the resolution.

There is nothing further in regard to the Railroad Commissioner embroglio. General Rusk will reach here from Washington this afternoon and will doubtless withdraw, after learning of the deter-through to-day its first battle on the silver question, and passed the Matthews concurrent resolutions, declaring it to be the opinion of Congress that principal and interest of the public debt is lawfully payable in siver dollars of 4121/2 grains. The The Victors to Embark at Conproceedings occupied over five hours, and were watched by a large crowd of interested spectators, notwithstanding the onesided character of the contest. After the usual routine business the resolutions came up, and a vote was at once taken on Conkling's amendment, which proposed to change their form from a mere concurrent declaration to a joint resolution which would possess the force of law, and also require Executive approval. This was defeated—23 to 30.

Washington, Jan. 25 .- The Senate fought

> Cabinet Officers in Congress. New York Tribune Editorial.

President Hayes will recommend in his message on civil service reform legislation whereby members of the Cabinet will be admitted to the privilege of debate in Congress on questions connected with their departments. This will be the first utterance in favor of what has long been deemed by many a desirable innovation, since Mr. Pendleton, who is now about to reenter Congress in the upper branch, signalized his last days in the House by urging this measure with ability and eloquence upon the attention of his colleagues. Mr.

Pendleton's bill, the text of which will be found elsewhere, awarded seats upon the floor of the House to the yarious members of the Cabinet, with the right to speak upon matters affecting their several departments, and so as not to put it in their power to refuse to exercise this privilege, required their attendance on two days of each week, immediately after the opening of the House, to answer questions propounded by members. With this bill were submitted amendments to the rules requiring public notice of the question to be asked, a proper interval, so as to allow sufficient time for the preparation of answers, and, in other respects, conforming the rules of the House to the long established English practice. The measure was vigorously opposed then, and doubless will be again, but there are very many powerful considerations in its fayor. The Tribune would gladly see introduced into our parliamentary system the one feature in lacking, and the presence which, in many other governments, has given them a direct responsibility to the people, in which ours has sometimes seemed deficient. No one would seriously propose to carry the parallel any further ; any modification of the logic of our government by which the terms of cabinet officers should be made to depend upon the will of the lower branch of Congress would contradict the whole theory of the Constitution. But so far as this change would tend to make the heads of departments more directly responsible to the people's representatives for the proper administration of their offices, and on the other hand would give them an opportunity to explain policies and repel charges, of which they are now deprived, it would seem to be an excellent idea to borrow.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM To the Editor.

In my last, I stated there were three classes that would oppose a reduction of salaries, the office holders and those who expect office, those who regard government and its agencies as something sacred and above the ordinary, and those who think it requires more or better brains to conduct a government than to carry on

As to the first class, the reason for its op. position lies on the surface and is easily seen, it is simple greed, "self, self, the chinck of Mammon and the love of pelf," but as to the other it is less apparent, being a relic of barbarism inherited by regular descent from the feudal ages.

farm or any other industrial occupation.

Until a very short time anterior to the American Revolution the people of the colonies were as loyal to the crown and believed as firmly in the divine right of kings as the people of England themselves, and so when our fathers, after the separation, came to form a government instead of forming a genuine republic, based on the equality of man, and simple in its machinery, they formed an elective monarchy, modeled mainly after that of England with most of the old aristocratic machinery left in full play. They knocked off a few of the old hoofs and horns, it is true, such as titles of nobility, State church, laws of primogeniture, made the chief magistrate elective, limited the term of office and called him President instead of King, but aside from these our whole civil polity as well as the organization of our army and navy, was formed after the old world models. We yested our President with sovereign of Great Britian, and, though the term of office was limited, yet as by the constitution of things they were compelled to run mainly in the same track. The result has been about the man. They called it a republic, but the length and breadth of its republicanism can be judged by the fact that the length and breadth of its republicanism can be judged by the fact that it tolerated the worst system of slavery the world ever knew, and though millions could be expended for its perpetuation we were utterly powerless to destroy it. The name is nothinh. Venice was called a republic, but it was the worst despotism in Eu-

Our fathers having eaten sour grapes their children's teeth were set on edge. Indeed, we have not only followed in their footsteps but we have outran them immeasurably. Our social as well as our political system is but a servile aping of the effete aristocracies of the old world. The same violent contrasts; the same extremes of wealth and poverty; the same conventional social distinctions; the same love of pomp and display, exist here as there; and if we have no hereditary titles, Earls and Dukes, we have official titles, civil, military and naval, that supply their place, and our officials are equally arrogant and reregardless of the great laws of human equality. We seem to have forgotten that a republic means a government of the people, by the people, and for the people, and act as it government was made exclusively for the holders of office, and that the moment a man becomes a greater man, more ponderous, more respectable, a more valuable member of society, and above all entitled to greater pay; which, as well as being a falley, is very hurtful to the general prosperity. To maintain that a president or a governor, We seem to have forgotten that a repub maintain that a president or a governor. unless he is a better man, is more respectable or valuable than a farmer or a carpenter is against both reason and the natural law. A man, whether plow holder or hod carrier who faithfully discharges his duty as a man, who does honest work and rears his family on a dollar or a dollar and a half a day without stealing, is a nobler man and more acceptable in the sight of God than the greatest conqueror that eyer lived. If he is not as conspicuous as s president or a governor he is more useful; we could get along without presidents or governors, but plow holders and hodcarriers are absolutely indispensable; they hold the world tegether. Why, then, should not the one be reverenced equally

It the quality of government is to be measured by its effect on society, by the condition of the laboring classes especially, which is the true test, then ours is not a genuine republic; or, if it is, it is no better than a monarchy, for its results in this regard are the same. The same state of MERCHANT TAILORING. things exist in New York, Boston and Philadelphia that are found in London, Paris and Berlin. Now this ought not to

We hear much of vested rights, of corporate rights, of the knowledge of them is lost for it is doubttul if one in a hundred of our people have any clear or definite idea of their rights, or the duties that are linked to and go hand in hand with them. 'Tis sad but true.

A fat calf is 62,3 per cent, water and 37.7 of dry substance.

California has 3,800,000 fruit trees, and 36,000,000 grape vines, and harvests from 300,000,000 to 500,000,000 pounds of truit yearly.

Not less than from one-third to fourfifths of the entire quantity of carbon contained in the crops we reap, from land of average fertility, is really obtained from the

The highest price ever paid for a thoroughbred yearling is $39,000, Lord Lonsdale having recently given that sum for a brother to Doncaster the Derby winner of 1875. Cheese and butter are bringing, relatively, higher prices than ever before. The exports of cheese last year to Great Britain amounted to 110,000,000 pounds, worth over $13,000,000, a large increase over the past year. Butter was exported to the amount of 14,000,000 pounds. Secretary Gray reports that taking Kansas as a whole not 1 per cent. damage was done last year by locusts, and that the State "goes in winter quarters with no grasshopper seed for 1878."

The total value of eggs imported into Great Britain during the first ten months of 1877, was £2,141,999, or over $10,500,000 as a total.

The necessity of an aundant supply of pure air for cowe is shown by the following calcutation: A cow consuming six pounds of carbon in its daily food, for respiratory purposes, would require 956 cubic feet of atmospheric air.

According to the Northampton (Mass.) Gazette, William S. Douglass, of Greenwich, has a very remarkable cow. It is stated that she gave in the month of June 1,392 quarts of milk. The most she gave in any one day was 521/2 quarts. She averaged through the month 46.4 quarts a day; at 6 cents a quart the milk would Messrs. Lawes and Gilbert have shown the results of growing turnips three lyears out manure. In the first year of roots was 9,388 pounds, in the second year 4,956 pounds, and in the third year 1,536 pounds. The result of applying yearly twelve tons of farmyard manure on this same land were as follows: The first year's crop amounted to 21,233 pounds; the second year's crop increased to 24,108 pounds; whilst in the third year a crop of 38,170 pounds of turnip roots was obtained. In these experiments the beneficial influence of the farmyard manure is clearly evident two years after its first application.

MISCELLANEOUS.

It is now an acknowledged fact that Con-SUMPTION CAN BE CURED. It has been cured in a very great number of cases (some of them apparently desperate ones) by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone, and in others by the same medicine in connection with Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, one or both, according to the requirements of the case.

The old supposition that "Consumption is incurable," for many years deterred physicians from attempting to find a remedy for that disease and patients afflicted with it reconciled themselves to death wi hout an effort being made to save them from a doom which was considered

Dr. Schenck himself was supposed at one time to be at the very gate of death, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate: he was CURED by the aforesaid medicines and afterward enjoyed uninterrupted good health for more than forty years .-Thousands of people have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. ## MPORTANT LETTER

From a Distinguished Physician.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind, one of more and sometimes all yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system atacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored became but little understood by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his Radical Cuer has won my hearty approval. I believe it likely to succeed when all the usual remedies fall, because it strikes at the root of the disease, viz., the actained blood, while it beals the ulcerated membrane by direct application to the mass passages. Its action is based on certain fixed rules, and unless the vital forces are too far exhausted, must, in the great majority of cases, effect a cure.

GEO. BEARD, M. D.

GEO. BEARD, M. D. NOBSCOTT BLOCK, So. FRANINGHAM, Oct. 1, 1874.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

MAY safely claim to be one of the few popular remedies receiving the approval of medical gentlemen, who, in private, not only freely recommend it but use it in their families in preference to any of the preparations usually prescribed by physicians.

to any of the preparations usually prescribed by physicians.

"You are aware," said a distinguished city physician, "that my obligations to the Mass. Medical Society are such that I cannot publicly recommend or prescribe the Radical Cure; but since I received so much reflef from the use of it myself, after a thorough trial of the usual remedies, I have privately advised its use, and presume I have sent to your store no less than one hundred of my patients for it."

UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION.

CENTLEMEN, — We have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURS for nearly one year, and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have to learn the first complaint yet.

We are not in the habit of recommending patent medicines, but your preparation meets the wants of thousands, and we think those afflicted should be convinced of its great meritso that their suffering will, be relieved. We have been in the drug business for the past twelve years constantly, and sold everything for Catarrh, but yours leads all the rest. If you see proper you can use this letter or any part of it that you wish.

Very truly yours,

An Electro-Galvanic Battery combined with a highly Medicated Strengthening Plaster, forming the best Plaster for pains and aches in the World of Medi-cine.

ELECTRICITY

As a grand curative and restorative agent is not equalled by any element or medicine in the history of the healing art. Unless the vital spark has fled the body, restoration by means of electricity is possible. It is the last resort of all physicians and surgeons, and has rescued thousands, apparently dead, from an untimely grave, when no other human agency could have succeeded. This is the leading curative element in this Plaster.

BALSAM AND PINE.

The healing properties of our own fragrant bal-sam and pine and the gums of the East are too well known to require description. Their grateful, healing, soothing, and strengthening properties are known to thousands. When combined in accord-ance with late and important discoveries in phar-macy, their healing and strengthening properties are increased tenfold. In this respect our Plaster is the best in use without the aid of electricity.

TWO IN ONE.

Thus combined we have two grand medical agents in one, each of which performs its function and unitedly produce more cures than any liniment, lotion, wash, or plaster ever before compounded in the history of medicine. Try one.

Proceedings of the Wisconsin Dairymen. in Session at Whitewater .- A sary for the farmer to protect himself by Large Number of Learned and Prac- economizing and making the most of his tical Essays Read and Discussed .-Speech of Francis D. Moulton, the Mutual Friend of Butter and Cheese.

The convention of Wisconsin dairymen met in Whitewater at 12 m. January 23, in Bower's Hall for preliminary organization, President A. D. Deland, of Sheboygan Falls, in the chair. There were on hand at the opening session a fair representation of the manufacturers of butter and cheese, and a good supply of various implements used in cream-raising, churning and making butter, and models of cheese-making implements, as well as a fine show of dairy products to compete for the fine and valuable prizes offered for those adjudged to be the best and second best.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The arrival of the mid-day trains and the farmers' carriages brought a large addition to the audience in the afternoon, so that the hall was packed full. This beautiful little city being the centre of a well-developed dairy district, in which cheese factorymen, butter-makers and raisers of improved breeds of cattle abound, they were there in full force, showing enthusiasm in the development of an interest that is adding millions to the productive energies of

The address of welcome in behalf of Whitewater and its citizens was made by Hon. T. D. Weeks, of this city. It was pleasantly and heartily conceived and eloquently and sometimes humorously expressed, putting the convention in the best of spirits. Replied to by Hon. Hiram Smith, of Sheboygan Falls, the President of the Northwestern Dairymens' Association, on behalf of the State Association. He gave some brief statistics, showing how large our expectations, how serious the consewas the consumption of butter and cheese in this country and of cheese in Europe, the keeping of one frail bark, when that that took all we had to spare at good prices. He went into a brief comparison of the stability and comparative morality and financial soundness of the business as compared with many other kinds of business of more pretensions, said that dealings in it were of the bonafide order, in which delivery of the product accompanied the transfer of the pay and no gambling for a then is it for us, small farmers certainly, to rise or fall took place independent of the property. Conspicuous on the President's stand was the $100 silver cup, offered by the large and well-known house of Geo. S. Hart & Howell, of New York, for the first specimen of full Cream Cheese, made he State. The house pays annually hundreds of thousands of dollars, for the dairy products of Wisconsin. The person winning the cup three years in succession owns it. Till then it passes around each year to those who win it.

Committees were announced by the President, when Vice President, C. Hazen, of Fond du Lac Co., took the introduced President and A. D. DeLand, who delivered the annual address, full or interest and encouragement for the business. One item of it expressed his surprise that those who could undertake the dairy business, and be protited by it, were slow to appreciate its advantages and profits. The President is a practical cheese maker and good farmer, and knows whereof he speaks in these matters.

EXCELLENT PAPERS. were read by H. J. Wilkinson, H. F. Dousman and B. F. Hoxie, on the topic of further developing the interest in the State and securing the danger of over production of good butter and cheese. EDITOR E. D. COE, of the Whitewater Register, gave an excellent address on the somewhat unique topic, "How Much Money Can a Man Afford to Make? Upon the subject of butter-making in Wisconsin, Mr. C. R. Beach, of Whitewater, a practical and well-posted tarmer, gave a paper that, in addition to a thorough discussion of the subject in hand, gave evidence that successful buttermaking had not kept him from culling flowers of literature and storing gems of thought all along its pathway. This point in the discussion was closed by Mr. Asa Foster, of Elkhorn.

ALSO A PRACTICAL FARMER, who took great pride in his profession. One important fact, he stated, was that a party in North Vermont, his old home, had quite recently written him that he must throw up the sponge to Wisconsin buttermakers, for Boston was paying two cents per pound more for fresh Western creamery butter than Vermont dairymen could get, and, what was worse, the exactions of local freightings made it cost more to ship butter 180 miles into Boston than competition made it cost from Wisconsin to Bos-

There was a considerable effort made by some to have

tell how to make good cheese from defective milk, but it was a good deal like getting an old fox into a trap.-Finally Mr. Hazen told what he did sometimes as a last resort, and that was to draw the whey early, cook through, and then grind the curd. He ony claimed that he could thus make a cheese that would pass in some English markets-not that it was gilt-edged.

W. C. WHITE, OF KENOSHA, the best feeder in the State, was called, and said that good results and profits were closely dependent on high feeding. J. H. Reall, of New York, spoke quite earnestly on salt, in opposition to the Higgins and in favor of the English Ashton.

OFFICERS. At the afternoon session the report of the committee on nominations was accepted and adopted, which officers the Association for the coming year as follows:

President-H. F. Dousman, of Water-Vice Presidents-T. C. Blanchard, Geo.

Honorary Vice Presidents-C. Hazen, S. Faville, Hiram Smith and A. D. Deland.

Secretary-D. W. Curtis. Treasurer-O. P. Clinton. ADDRESS OF FRANCIS D. MOULTON.

An immense and expectant crowd was n attendance to hear F. D. Moulton, of Vegetine is Sold by All Druggists. New York, widely known as one of the best orators among business men. He has commanding presence, and a penetrating even thrilling, voice that commands his audience at once. He put the dairy interest at the front of agricultural pursuits, and held that its highest attainments had already made a marked distinction in gen Lilly, Young, Pratt and Brackett's eral intelligence among those devoted to it. He spoke of his early struggles with penury, and alluded to a sainted mother > were superior to any we have heard." Gilmore is coming, It is enough. The Baptist Church next Friday evening wil doubtless be the scene of as great a crush as was ever witnessed in the city. It ought to be. This will give Imany of the Janesville public an opportunity which they will doubtless never have again of hearing the choicest music of its kind ever produced, and under the direction of P.S. Gilmore himself. The band intends visit ngithe coming Paris Exposition and the programme will be the same as as that to be rendered there. The celebrated anvil introduced chorus other attractive features. The Inter-Ocean in speaking of Gilmore

> "To name him is to praise." He needs no more introduction than does Theodore Thomas. The two great leaders occupy the same relative position in the world of music-Thomas as the director of the finest orchestra in the country, and Gilmore as the leader of a band which, in its sphere, between the two men is this: That Thomas seeks to interpret compositions adapted to classical and scholarly tastes, while Gilmore strives to satisfy the popular craving for music. No organization is more welcome in Chicago than Gilmore, on account of the enjoyable music which is included in his programmes, and the high standard of execution which is observed by the band.

> The concert announced to be given by Mrs. H. M. Page and the Swedish trio is declared off, they having changed their minds and concluded to go elsewhere. It is doubtful whether they will find a city that gives musical talent a more hearty

It being ascertained that Mr. W. A. Colter, a prominent lawyer, of Detroit, in tended to visit friends in Janesville soon an invitation has been extended to and accepted by him, in accordance with which he will lecture before the Mutual Improvement Club on "My Horseback Ride through Semi-Tropical California." Mr. Colter is ago, and who, for the supposed purpose of a relative of the late Col. McHenry.

Prof. E. D. B. Mills, of Syracuse, N. Y. will give a conversation at All Souls parlor to-night before the M. I. C., on "The Wisdom of the Orient in Proverb, Maxim. Apologue, &c." Everybody welcome.

SOCIALIZING.

Small tea-parties seems to be the popular way of expressing social triendliness this season. Instead of giving a full dress crush, these little gatherings of thirty or forty friends seem an enjoyable substitute. They have many advantages. The guests come early, and the good-nights are said at a reasonable hour. No jaded faces and weary forms bespeak over-taxed socibilities. Those who are invited !have a good ime. Those who are not invited don't get mad about it. The affairs are not tormal, or dressy, and all the guests feet at ease. Hence their popularity.

One of these tea parties was given at the residence of Mr. Hıram Merrill, last Thursday evening, and was fully as enjoyable as any that have taken place this sea-

The churches believe in social frolics too. The Court Street Methodists packed W. F. Carle's residence last night almost to overflowing. The usual attractions were prescated without any formal programme. An interesting pantomime giving some glimpses of Chinese habits of living and thinking was presented, accompanied by a reading explanatory of the scenes. Vocal and instrumental music abounded, and the hours were crammed full of enjoyment.

The All Souls triends gathered in the Church parlors and listened to an entertaining farce entitled "In a Fix." At its close a merry dance followed till midnight. An entertainment was given last night at the residence of A. H. Sheldon, for the benefit of the Congregational church. Among the attractions were some fine views presented through a sciopticon, representing scenery in various parts of the world. The programme also included charades and readings.

The friends of Christ church will give Richardson next Tuesday eyening to which all are invited. Plenty of music and othhe knows how it is, and is eager to give a will doubtless be consummated within a helping hand to others. Good luck be with few days by which a new company will lease the present factory from the old company and proceed with the manufacturing. Under the new management the enterprise will doubtless be pushed forward to success, and all who have an interest in the general prosperity of the city will be glad to learn that there is such a fisttering prospect of the doors being thrown open, and the wheels set whirling again. The manufacturing interests of the city are of vital importance, and all who move or think outside of petty circles of selfishness should gladly do all in their power to keep this branch of interest flourishing.

SKIPPED TO CANADA.

There are many, who remember a socalled Dr. Hall, a specialist, who visited Janesville 1 st fall, and gave those who delight in scandals, such a choice tid-bit to roll like a sweet morsel under their tongues. The Brodhead Independent adds another chapter to his history as follows

-That Cat-arrh Specialist (?) who induced a pretty young girl of Monroe to elope with and marry him, a short time procuring a wedding outfit for his bride, repaired to Milwaukee, as was stated in this paper, at the time, was heard of last week in Wabash Indiana. Officer Strawser started at once to Madison for the necessary papers, and from thence to Indianapolis for the same, in order to accomplish correctly the work. In the meantime a day citizen of Monroe sent a letter for publication to a Wabash paper, exposing the villian. As may be supposed he "dug out" with all possible haste to Canada, where he now is. Mr. S. would certainly have gotten his bird, had not the letter in question, been sent. So sure were the people of Monroe that the officer would have him. that they assembled at the train Saturday night, to the number of three or four hun dred. Great disappointment was manifested.

Lemon.

It is from the rind of the Messina lemon that Dr. Price prepares his Special Flavoring Extract of Lemon. While other Lemon Extracts in a little time have the taste and odor of turpentine, Dr. Price's for any length of time retains its intense lemony taste.

Overtasking the Energies.

It is not advisable for any of us to overtask our energies, corporeal or mental, but in the eager pursuit of wealth or fame or knowledge, how many transgress this salutary rule. It must be a matter of great importance to all who do so to know how they can regain the vigor so recklessly expended. The remedy is neither costly nor difscult to obtain. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is procurable in every city, town and settlement in America, and it compensates for a drain of bodily or mental energy more effectually than any invigorant ever prescribed or advertised. Laboring men, athletes, students, journalists, lawyers, clergymen, physicians, all bear testimony to its wondrous renovatig powers. It increases the capadilities for undergoing fatigue, and counteracts the injurious effects upon the system of exposure, sedentary habits, unhealthy or wearying avocations, or insalubrious climate, and is a prime alterative, diuretic and blood depurent. jan21deodaw1w
